

Bill Grogan
Regional Sports Director

Bill Grogan took over the key role of regional sports director from Kerry Henderson at the start of the 2005. This ended a distinguished career in teaching, which included along stint at Burnside High School as Head of the Physical Education department and most recently at Hillmorton High School where he was deputy principal.

Thanks to Marc Greenhill at The Christchurch Mail for writing part of this article.